We, the students of room 6,
have great aspirations for our lives.

We hope to:

- Be significant—do something worthwhile that nobody else has done
- Live long, happy lives, surrounded by loved ones, Legos & video games
- Raise a great family in a nice home
- Help others
- Have a lot of good friends and become at least slightly rich
- Volunteer for a good cause
- Have a good job that pays the bills and gives lots of free time
- Have fun doing my job; have free time to read while earning a living
- Have enough money to live well in retirement
- Be really charming so everyone likes me
- Go to school; keep learning something always
- Have kids (but not have to be married)
- Own a yacht and skydive over Cuba
- Save people from the bad guys (or women!)
- Have a dream job: well-paying and FUN
- Have a beautiful wife or 'hot' husband
- Prove the existence of Sasquach (the Yeti)
- Travel to Italy & France. See the world!
- Still play sports while working a professional job
- Write a book!
- Go to Harvard
- Get a PhD.
- Fly!
- Win the lottery
- Act in the movies
- Live to over 100

- Add a word to the dictionary
- Have dogs and a horse or two
- Live in a beautiful place
- Live in the 'city', DC, or NYC
- Go to college in Seattle
- Go mermaiding regularly
- Have a pilot license
- Become good skateboarders
- Have 4 dogs, 1 cat & 2 kids
- Retire happy & rich
- Pass away peacefully at 103

To Achieve these great Aspirations, We, the 2011-12 students of room 6, will strive to:

- Be the best person I can be, inside AND out!
