

Home Reading Log

Responding to Strong Leads

An interesting lead (introduction) to a story can really get you hooked and make you want to read more. Your assignment this week is to read the lead (first 2 pages or chapter) and write about what the author did to get you hooked. How did they introduce characters and setting? Is there action or dialogue that draws you right into the story? What do they do to make not want to put it down?